The Senior Class of 1962, the first class to have completed four years in the new Troy
High School, presents the 1962 Edition of
The Trojan

TRAD

AW '62

Dedication

September 9, 1930 was the beginning of the long and devoted service of Mr. Frank Montross to the Troy Board of Education. After serving only six years, he was elected President in which office he served so faithfully for twenty-six consecutive years. Mr. Montross was a very dedicated man and uppermost in his mind was the betterment of education in the Troy School System. Mr. Montross should be proud of the high standards, both morally and academically, that were achieved under his devoted leadership. We, the Senior Class of 1962, humbly dedicate this Annual to him.

The 1962 Trojan pays special tribute to Mr. Charles West, beloved teacher, leader, and friend. Through his inspired direction and interest, the Trojans, a hand-picked group of Troy's most able singers, have aroused respect and admiration from east to west.

Since 1945, Mr. West has supervised Troy's music department, consistently producing fine music and capable musicians. In recent months, Mr. West's eyesight has been growing weaker, and his usual activities have been necessarily limited, consequently, the Trojans and Mr. West will not make their annual tour.

However, his influence and inspiration have not lessened and Troy students, past, present, and future, wish him continued success and future good health.

Whose score do you think you're changing?

Do you want to be Queen for a Day?

7-way stretch??!

You oughta see the other fellow!

Same to you fellow!

How are your little darlings?

How does it feel to drench yourself in luxury?

"Off your diet, eh?"

And now Hoffy, for the $64,000 question. . .

"Fillet of a fenny snake,
In the caldron boil and bake;
Eye of newt and toe of frog,
Wool of bat and tongue of dog,
Adder's fork and blind worm's sting.
Lizard's leg and howlet's wing,
For a charm of powerful trouble,
Like a hell broth boil and bubble. . ."

Our 1962

It seems like only yesterday when we, the Class of 1962, assembled in the cafeteria of the new high school for Orientation Day. Here we were given instructions and rules and a map of the school. We had the advantage over other classes because we had a chance to see the school, and ask questions of the teachers. Orientation Day soon ended, and our first day as high school students was here. We once again assembled in the cafeteria, and came to know our home room teachers. After waiting for awhile, a deep, loud voice boomed over the P.A., our first encounter with Mr. Secoy, our principal Always nearby was his sidekick, Mr. Hoffman, and as we progressed in high school he came to be known as "Hoffy".

Hot summer days soon passed into fall, and that meant a Get-Acquainted Party. The leaders of recreation and group dynamics, thought up a new way to separate us: Boys on one side, girls on the other. Strange, it's still that way today.

As freshmen we were to serve at the All-Club Formal, and those militant upperclassmen were quite demanding, but Ted Rogers got even by putting ice cold water on a girl's bare back.

Scholastically speaking, we were on the bottom of the Totem Pole. But we did have spirit? Athletically, three stars were to shine through in track for us—Steve Strominger, Steve Griffieth and Bill Kerns. That winter during the basketball season we won our first cheering contest, and showed those seniors.

Remember Freshman Chorus? It seemed like everyone was in it. That experience of testing your vocal cords for Sophomore Choir is another experience that will never be forgotten. It was during our Freshman year that we came in contact with Mrs. Burk, the lady who wore two different shoes.

Our Freshman year was soon over and before we knew it, we were sophomores. We had to collect insects for Mr. Pettay and Mr. Smith. We enlisted the help of everyone to be on the look-out for any six-legged creature.

This was the year we attended our first big dance, The All-Club Formal, and it was our turn to order the "poor" underclassmen around.

Our status was gaining, and we had girls trying out for cheerleading. If some of our sophomore girls appeared to be rather stiff it was only because they had sore muscles. The student body elected Ann Tyminski and Dee Reed to cheer the football and basketball teams on to victory.

This was our year to elect officers for our junior class for next year. Ed Royer was elected president; Brian Bertholomey, vice-president; Alice Gillam, Secretary; Tom Falknor, treasurer.

Trent Leatherman set off the fire alarm and we didn't know what had happened.

The end of the year was nearly over, and it was hard to believe we had to leave Caesar, Latin II, and Mrs. Helton. Speaking of Latin, we had to pay a nickel into a fund for chewing gum. Butch Riggs paid a quarter to chew in advance. Caesar didn't die, but lived in Miss Hartle's English class in Billy Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar."

Leaving geometry and all those confounded triangles, and theorems behind was not too sad, but Mr. Hoffman's sense of humor (?) would be missed.

Oh, scholastically speaking? Well, nothing too new; we were still on the bottom of the Totem Pole.

Our junior year was upon us at last. We were finally upperclassmen! This was going to be an exciting year especially since we had chemistry with Mr. Farrell and Mr. Houk. Mr. Houk was the absent-minded professor when his distiller ran over. Chemistry and the sweet aroma of sulfur will always be a fragrance to remember. Remember putting the bunsen burner hose into the water faucet instead of the gas, and the gas hose in the water faucet, Jane Kessler? Never let it be said Cecil B. DeMille did things up in a colloquial way. We created our own "Noah's Ark" and the flood.

The Junior-Senior Prom, "Un Soir A Paree", was the best that T.H.S. has ever had. The Junior Program Sellers made the money for the prom, and Mr. Kazmaier certainly had some real good girls working with him.

In our junior year, our Trojan Toga staff had the brilliant idea of keeping the newspaper in the school. Though they may never win the Pulitzer Prize, we imagine their pioneering will always be remembered. In fact, we sometimes wondered where that "pioneer" news came from. Nevertheless, the efforts of Jane Kessler, who was to be the editor of the annual, Madiline Lance, Sharon Nofle, Cheryl Daugherty, Lynnea Griner, Larry Salyer, Gretchen Scott, Wayne Carlisle, and Claudia Jenkins will not be turned into dust.

"The Thread That Runs So True", was our chance to show what really great hams we were. One of the bigger hams was A. J. Shaneyfelt who nearly knocked over the scenery while our director, Mr. Rosen, was given oxygen. In later reports, he claimed no knowledge of having anything to do with it. Linda Melvin was a life-saver in the play when the desk fell off the platform, and everyone forgot their lines, except Linda Melvin. Ask Doug York what's it like to be the only boy with an all girl cast of eleven. "Thanks Awfully" was his reply when he was given the part in the play by the same name.

Class History

Scholastically speaking, well, we were doing much better. Everyone seemed to be rather proud of us. We came in second and we could almost hear the teachers say "At last!"

Our junior year brought with it many awards. Elected to Buckeye Girls' State were Alice Gillam and Kathy Zurmehly with Jane Rehmert and Juanita Kessler as alternates. Jim Kirkland, Jeff Buckalew, and Bill Adkins were elected to Buckeye Boys' State.

Time for another election rolled around and we elected our Senior class officers—Jim Kirkland, president; Gary Fagan, vice-president; Alice Gillam, secretary; Dee Reed, treasurer. The Student Council elected Ed Royer as president for the coming year.

Our first Senior Chapel and all we could think of was next year when we would be seniors. The chapel was very impressive and sad, but we juniors had to put our two cents in, too. The Carson and Vesper trophies, which are given to the most outstanding junior girl and boy, were given to Alice Gillam and Jim Kirkland.

Our junior year ended and our senior year came at last. The Senior Bench was legally ours. It seemed strange to be a senior and none of us really felt like one always looked—sophisticated, poised, and intelligent. At any rate, we were in full swing of things by selling mums for homecoming. We elected Queen Penny Bausch and her court—Sondra Jackson, Juanita Kessler, Joan Gavigan, Dee Reed, and Doris Bretland.

The first six weeks ended and the seniors won the Honor Roll plaque for the first time.

One person we can be very proud of is Bill Adkins who was a finalist in National Merit Scholarship.

Although we didn't get a chance to celebrate winning the M.V.L. in football, we had some real champs because we came in second and had a record to be proud of . . .

Brian Bertholomey was named to the All M.V.L. Football Squad. He was also an Honorable Mention in All Ohio Football Squad. Not to be outdone, Jeff Buckalew was named to the Second Squad in M.V.L. for basketball which showed Mr. Welbaum he had done a fine job.

The Senior Class play was "One Foot In Heaven". Somehow the cast came out real well, and everyone enjoyed the play.

A cappella choir, boys' and girls' glee club had 44 A's out of a possible 45 at the music contest. This is a record that can't be outdone, only by Mr. West. He has done so much for us and we can never thank him enough.

This year is the last year for the Trojanaires—our good-will ambassadors. Mr. West is loved, admired, and respected by the student body, the faculty, and this city of Troy. All his accomplishments will always be remembered.

Our three shining stars, Steve Strominger, Bill Kerns, and Steve Griffieth, did as well in 1962 as they did in 1959 and in 1960 when they won M.V.L. letters.

The tennis team with seniors, Chuck Freiburger, Tom Oldham, and Gary Wehrley, had an outstanding season.

Then there were those seventh period parties thrown by Tim Ruffin, Ed Longendelpher, John Gormley, and Chuck Freiburger in B-8 every day until chairman Ed Royer finally halted them.

Mr. Prouty will never be forgotten for his questions; he really kept his classes and every student alert and on their toes.

S.O.S. gave Mrs. Burk a "This is Your Life" and those pictures were something all of us should have seen.

Election day for student government came around. The two parties were the V.E.S.T. (Very Efficient Services for Troy) and the T.W.I.S.T. (Top Worthwhile Improvements and Services for Troy). The T.W.I.S.T. wound up with twelve city jobs while the V.E.S.T. had five.

Marilyn Miller won a position in the School Band of America an accomplishment we should be proud of.

The time is coming to a close and it's hard to believe it's over until the last strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" have been played and we have the diploma in our hands.
